

147 Pianos

Lukas Piano Service
1500 S. Western Avenue, Chicago

Instructions

Music

The piano playlist includes pieces that will be performed by the group and instructions for the music that will be played together. The enclosed folders are divided into categories of Beginning, Intermediate and Advanced. Choose your level, be comfortable and have a good time! Remember this is about play! So play as you like and do not be concerned about mastery or mistakes. Many people are playing that we want to reassure you that you do not need to worry about a thing.

The group playlist includes:

- Chopsticks/ Euphemia Allen
- Bethena/ Scott Joplin
- Gymopedie #1/ Eric Satie
- 147 Pianos/ Rob Steel – new composition explained with music
- Your favorite piece of music before 1923 – individual choice, bring with you

Additional pieces will be played by individuals in the final performance.

It's fine to just play some of Chopsticks or a bit of your favorite piece of music before 1923 (when copyright was instituted). You can sit and listen whenever you like. If you are feeling ambitious go further. Every level is great!

Rehearsal – Friday, October 18, 6:30-9:30PM

The rehearsal will be very helpful so your attendance is important. However, it is not a deal-breaker if you cannot attend the rehearsal. Kindly let us know so that we can have a piano reserved for you!

Attire

Everyone must wear black. This is to ensure the quality of the documentary film, so everyone needs to be in this costume, casual or formal, it's up to you. However, this is a warehouse and it is dusty, so we would encourage you to not wear your best clothes! Also, since this is a documentary film of the performance, there will be wires (all carefully taped down) but the highest heels may not be the best choice for the evening. Make sure you are dressed comfortably.

Personal belongings

There will not be a place to leave your belongings during the performance so please travel light!

Table lamps

We are looking for table lamps for the pianos so if you have a small piano table light, it would be great to bring it with you. This is not a requirement so don't worry if this is not an easy find for you.

Performance – Saturday, October 19, 5:30-7:00PM

PLEASE ARRIVE AT 4:30PM to make sure that you are properly checked in and oriented!

Please distribute this sheet and the music and information about the performance to anyone and everyone who might be interested!

If you have not already, you can sign up to perform and to receive email updates at:
